Three Graces,

Style-Fit-Wear.

These are the three graces in the shoe business. A shoe may be of good style and yet not fit or wear well; or it may fit or not be in style and the wearing qualities amount to little unless it fits properly. But the three graces—the trio of perfection in shoes—Style, Fit and Wear—must be combined to insure entire satisfaction to all parties concerned. This is the lesson we are teaching the shoe buyers.
